The City of Richmond Hill Announces In-House Management Transition

The City of Richmond Hill and the Richmond Hill Convention & Visitor Bureau are pleased to announce that we will now directly manage the Richmond Hill City Center. We value your decision to host your event with us and remain committed to ensuring its success. Your event is our top priority, and all existing bookings will be honored.

Over the next several months, we will transition to a new operational structure, but current operations and services will remain in place until the transition is complete. We look forward to continuing to provide you with exceptional service.

ABOUT THE CITY OF RICHMOND HILL:

The City of Richmond, Georgia is a quiet family community, located just minutes south of metropolitan Savannah. The city of more than 17,000 residents retains a small-town charm and offers citizens a diminished crime rate, outstanding educational opportunities, community services, recreational facilities, and beautiful scenery. Visitors are impressed by its southern charm, rich history, variety of outdoor adventures, fishing and great local seafood. With its distinctive history and scenic beauty, Richmond Hill is coastal Georgia living at its finest. Richmond Hill is a rapidly growing community located in the southern portion of Bryan County, which has been designated as the fastest-growing county in Georgia and the sixth-fastest growing in the United States according to recent 2020 U.S. Census Bureau data.
